FUNCTION

The Playhouse Desk is a cheerful reference to the typical dwelling place found in children's drawings.

The roof of the house serves as a desktop - a drawing space, the chimneys on the roof can be used to store crayons and pencils.

There is a window in one of the walls, you can get into the house and play hide-and-seek, marketplace or library under the roof.

The desk can be matched with chairs and pouches for pencils and treasures.

The desktop is made of stain resistant white laminate.

DESIGN

The Roof Collection designed by Kutikai brings out the exceptional nature of plywood. It comes across the needs of a modern parent and truly makes children smile.

The rungs are unevenly arranged with varying width, the narrowest fits perfectly into the baby's small hands making it easier to stand up.

Simple, safe, and practical, with a robust design, manufactured in a family carpenter shop in the south of Poland - all under strict designers' supervision.
