FUNCTION

The very simple form of the chair from the Roof Collection has been designed in such a way that it won't compete with the very remarkable shape of the Playhouse Desk. The seat has a milled hole that makes it easier for parents to move it from place to place, and the children can attach the pencils and crayons pouch to it.

DESIGN

The Roof Collection designed by Kutikai brings out the exceptional nature of plywood. It comes across the needs of a modern parent and truly makes children smile. The rungs are unevenly arranged with varying width, the narrowest fits perfectly into the baby's small hands making it easier to stand up. Simple, safe, and practical, with a robust design, manufactured in a family carpenter shop in the south of Poland – all under strict designers' supervision.
